Toledo, Ohlo, Feb. 12-"Jap" Barbeau, the crack shortstop of the American Association, owned by the Toledo club the past two years and drafted by the Philadelphia Nationals last winter and then turned over to the Pittsburg club, to-day received his contract from the Pittsburg management.

Accompanying the contract, Barbeau received a personal letter from Dreyfuss, in which Dreyfuss promised him a substan tial raise each month if his work proved satisfactory. Barbeau will return his signed contract to-morrow. He believes he will likely be placed at second and used as substitute for Wagner.
